We are open to all who are seeking Jesus Christ and who wish to benefit from this ministry and who seek to use our services for this purpose. We reserve the right to not allow our services to be used in a way that is contrary to our Christian beliefs and ethos (and therefore potentially harmful to those our ministry seeks to help).

- People sharing a bedroom who are involved (or intend to be involved) together in an intimate sexual relationship outside a traditional biblical marriage.
- Inappropriate or excessive public displays of sexual intimacy or affection.
- Pornographic material, including on-line access.
- Religious practices (including occult) that are not consistent with our Christian beliefs and ethos.

If you are unsure whether something may fall outside activity permitted at our centres, please seek guidance beforehand from the relevant centre. For further information on the Christian beliefs and ethos of Ellel Ministries International, including our understanding of marriage, see "What We Believe" and our statement of faith.
