WHO WE ARE

Ellel Ministries is a non-denominational Christian ministry that began in England in 1986. It is now established in over 30 countries around the world. It exists to bring God's healing love to those who are struggling with life's issues, and to provide extensive training for those seeking to minister effectively to others.

Many in the church feel that there is no real answer to the problems they face on a daily basis - such as fear, anxiety, addictions, anger outbursts, long-term consequences of trauma or abuse and relationship dysfunction.

Ellel Ministries is committed to both healing and discipleship, recognising that these are two sides of the same coin. God is in the business of restoring His people and equipping them to fulfill their destiny as true disciples of Jesus. For over 30 years Ellel Ministries International has had the great privilege of seeing God transform thousands of lives around the world.

GOD'S FAITHFULNESS 30 YEARS ON

The call of God in 1970 to establish a ministry of healing was unmistakeable. But it was 16 years before prayers were answered and Ellel Grange gave its name to what is now a world-wide ministry. That first leaflet touched the hearts of God's people to give and our first Newsletter was headed REJOICE! in bright red capital letters. We could hardly believe what God had done!

But when God acts in such a signal way, it is always for a very significant purpose. And as the hurting, broken and often desperate people came knocking on the door, we were thrust into a maelstrom of need. God's purposes were being worked out.

Peter Horrobin
writing some of the very first newsletters back in 1986.

We had a lot to learn, but we were learning. And as we moved forward in faith, God seemed to cover our ignorance and our mistakes by putting the whole team on an intensive on-the-job training course in healing and deliverance! We saw miracles being worked by God's hand from the very first Healing Retreat and people went home rejoicing at what God had done.

We didn't realise it at the time, but we were part of a great world-wide move of the Holy Spirit to restore the healing and deliverance ministries to the Church. The days were getting darker and the immediate ministry needs of people coming to faith in Christ were fast becoming greater. It is vital that the Church understands and is able to help those with a background of trauma, broken relationships, abuse, rejection and dysfunctional childhoods through the faithful application of the unchanging truths of God's Word. Evangelism and healing are inseparable in today's world.

In establishing the work in 1986, God was preparing in advance a work to meet today's needs. And throughout these past thirty years we have seen the miracles of lives transformed and God's providential supply enable the work to spread like wildfire across the nations – not because we have looked to expand, but because God's people have come asking for help and training to meet the needs of people in their own country.

There is a harvest out there which must be reaped.
The days are closing in and night is coming.

Thirty years on there are now many excellent leaders who are taking the work forward, and for Fiona and myself our primary calling right now is to ensure that all the experience and training that God gave us on the job, gets recorded in a written form and published by Sovereign World.

Far from the work coming towards the end of its days as we get older, we see that God has been establishing a foundation on which the real work can now begin! The world is changing fast. God is moving the pieces on the chessboard of history. And if it wasn't for the peace and security we have in Jesus, there would be good reason to fear what is to come. In my lifetime, for example, God has restored Israel as a nation and today Messianic Jews, Arabs and gentiles are discovering that in Christ we are truly one. God is in control of the nations and as we move on into the destiny He has prepared for us, we are ready to follow Him wherever He opens the doors.

There is a harvest out there which must be reaped. The days are closing in and night is coming. Pray with us that God will raise up many more workers to join us on the road ahead, and others who will provide that essential support, so that together we can be a light in the darkness for those who are looking for God's answers in a hurting world.

And they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they loved not their lives even unto death.

When I was six years old my parents separated. I lived with Mum and would see my dad every so often. Mum expected me to be loyal towards her and would blame my Dad for everything that had happened. Dad never explained what was happening and continued like nothing had happened. Later he started to blame Mum.

The rebellious 6-year-old started to turn towards Father God and seek comfort through Him.

Over ten years ago I received healing for some traumatic events that were related to my parents' divorce. So I thought this area has been dealt with. It was not until my husband and I separated and my Mum would immediately put the blame on me. When I started to realise that there was some misconception about my parents' divorce during the time of separation. I became aware of a place inside me that seemed dead. There was a pain and a need for comfort related to it which lead me to look for this in wrong places at times. When I was divorced some months ago, the pain that surfaced was not only related to my own divorce but the fatherlessness I suffered through the divorce of my parents. I started to feel the pain of the dead part inside me. It was like part of this six-year-old girl would become alive.

Before the Ministry time, the 6-year-old part of me became very angry about everything that had happened, also that part of me was not open to ministry from adults. I was taken back by those rebellious feelings and thoughts as rebellion is something I had dealt with in depth a long time ago. During the time of ministry, the Holy Spirit started to minister to that 6-year-old little girl.

I remembered Daddy had fought for his marriage up to supreme court of my country. The legal system gave him no chance. This makes me proud of my Dad. I was able to allow positive feelings towards my dad which I wasn't allowed due to the demanded loyalty towards my Mum. Once again I forgave them for the fact that they divorced. I was able to take all the burden that Mum had put on me by over sharing to the cross. I sensed a lot of distress and other things leaving me. The rebellious 6-year-old started to turn towards Father God and seek comfort through Him.

I am grateful having learnt various prayer skills through my Modular school which I was able to apply on myself as this unredeemed part of me would not accept any ministry from others. I praise God for bringing me here again and redeeming me with His loving kindness and patience. ■

Guest on Weekend Course

I would have said that I have never had any feelings of rejection before this weekend. I have learned that I have been living a life of denial about how traumatic my childhood and early adulthood had been. So I grew up taking great care to hide how much I struggle and suffer with life. This cover and my own self protection has been preventing me from discovering my real identity and the person Father God made me to be. I have lived for 70 years under a false identity!

I can tell you at that moment I took His love for me deep into my spirit

This weekend, when Tom spoke about God's love and His determination to rescue us, my heart was broken. "Who will go?" then Jesus said "I will go and rescue them." Such love, no words to describe the unfolding love for me.

Then there I was, a little girl stood before Him in His throne room with crowds of glittering beings watching. I had a shining white gown on and a golden crown on my head. My little chubby hands were clasped in front of me and I was asking "are you my real true Father, am I the one you love and cherish so much that you sent Jesus to rescue me?" And He said "yes, my beautiful child, now you can really know how much I love you"

I can tell you at that moment I took His love for me deep into my spirit. I could never have dealt with the past traumas that he has revealed to me this weekend, before He first covered me with a love that has always been there for me. As soon as I received it, the past could melt away and now I have a wonderful future as my awareness of His love grows and I get to know Him now, He is healing my spirit. Now the pains of the past can fall away and the future He promised me can EXPAND!! ■

Guest on Acceptance & Belonging

LET'S STAND FIRM TOGETHER!

There seems to be so much hostility these days against straightforward biblical Christian truth, not least in the areas of sexual purity, marriage, personal entitlement and the uniqueness of Jesus Christ as the Saviour of humankind.

Those who challenge the plumb line of God's word invariably make strong accusations of discrimination, bigotry, prejudice or intolerance against Bible-believing Christians. However, the quiet voice of God continues to respond, through His word, that He loves every one of us beyond anything that we can imagine, and that He simply wants to tell us what is best for our present and our eternal wellbeing. God's commanded boundaries for our lives are surely to liberate us not to imprison.

God's commanded boundaries for our lives are surely to liberate us not to imprison.

It seems such a reasonable message, but followers of Jesus can sometimes feel like little fish swimming into a frenzy of sharks. Of course, this is not just a recent experience for believers. There has always been the need to push against the seemingly overwhelming tide of false religion, humanism and sometimes against the disheartening hostility which can come from those who apparently identify as fellow Christians. This is, it seems, part and parcel of being a friend of Jesus, and indeed He said it would be so!

Here's an extract from the journal of John Wesley:

Sunday a.m. May 5: Preached in St. Ann's; was asked not to come back any more.

Sunday p.m. May 5: Preached at St. John's; deacons said, 'Get out and stay out.'

Sunday a.m. May 12: Preached at St. Jude's; can't go back there either.

Sunday p.m., May 12: Preached at St. George's; kicked out again.

Sunday a.m. May 19: Preached at St. Somebody Else's; deacons called a special meeting and said I couldn't return.

Sunday p.m. May 19: Preached on the street; kicked off the street.

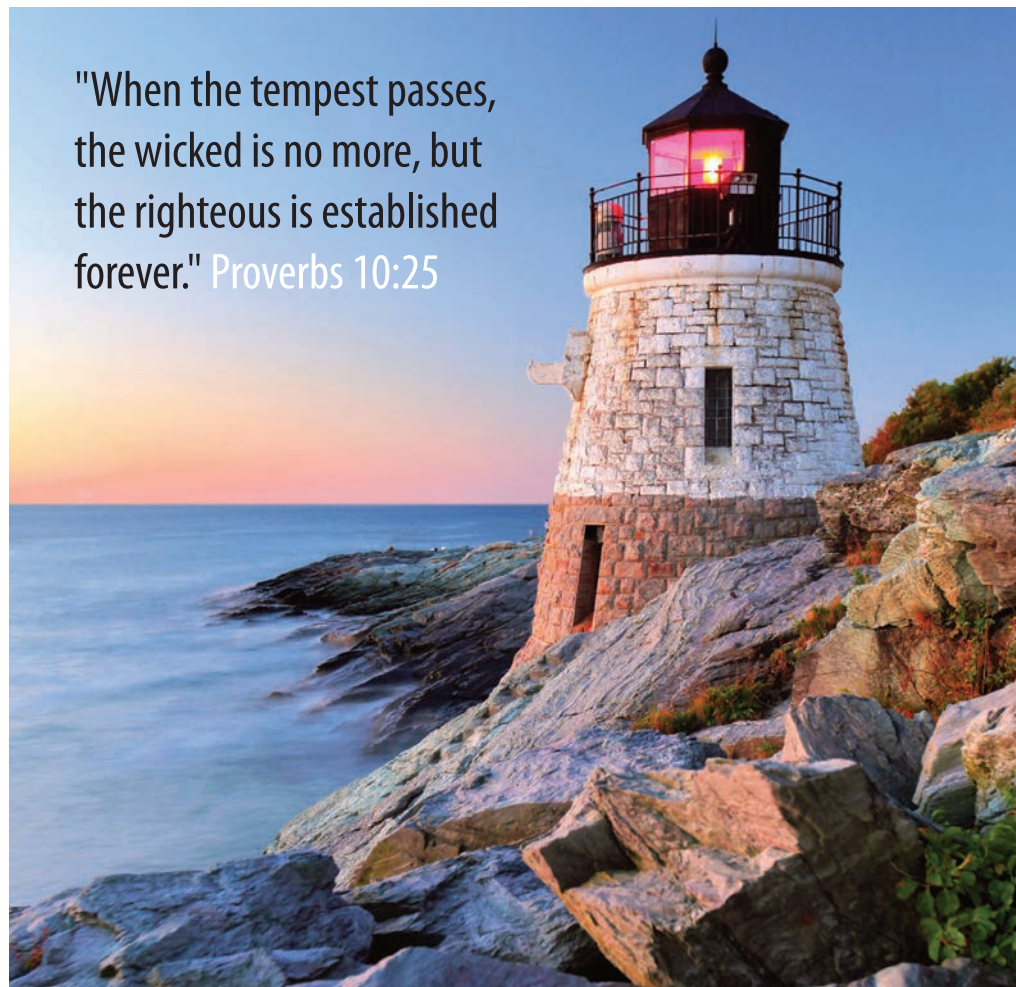

Sunday a.m. May 26: Preached out in a meadow; chased out of meadow when a bull was turned loose during the service.

Sunday a.m. June 2: Preached out at the edge of town; kicked off the highway.

Sunday p.m. June 2: Afternoon service, preached in pasture; 10,000 people came.

As I read this inspiring extract, recording this preacher's day-to-day trials and joys, I found myself reflecting on what Jesus Himself might have similarly written as He pressed through with the extraordinary calling on His life:

"When the tempest passes, the wicked is no more, but the righteous is established forever." Proverbs 10:25

Day 1: Preached salvation in the synagogue. The people tried to throw me off a nearby cliff.

Day 2: Healed a dear paralytic man. Religious leaders accused me of blasphemy.

Day 3: Delivered a poor man who was unable to speak. Some of the crowd accused me of using the power of the ruler of demons.

Day 4: Explained to some teachers of the law the difference between empty religion and true relationship with God. They went away very hostile and were clearly plotting against me.

Day 5: Teaching in one of the villages. Told to go away because Herod wanted to kill me.

Day 6: In another village, explained that it's impossible to give your life to both God and to personal wealth. The Pharisees who were present laughed at me.

Day 7: Ten lepers healed. So sad that only one, a Samaritan, returned to give thanks to God.

Day 8: Tried to explain to my disciples a little of what was going to eventually happen to me. None of them were able to understand what I was saying.

Day 9: Chief tax collector in Jericho repented and returned money to those he had defrauded. He and his family were all saved today. Thank You Father. ►►

The lesson from John Wesley's extraordinary diary, as well as the recorded ministry of Jesus, seems to be that each of us is required to just stand firm and do what our Heavenly Father has instructed us to do. When we do this, we find, as many have experienced down through history, there are times of such miraculous and joyful light in the darkness that all the pain of human hostility fades into insignificance. Jesus was very honest with His disciples and told them that those speaking Kingdom truth would, as He did, experience much opposition. However, He did not look for trouble and neither should we. He walked and talked in accordance with His Father's instructions, sharing God's life-giving message with uncompromising truth, and with boundless loving grace.

Therefore, take up the full armour or God, so that you will be able to resist in the evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm.

In the midst of all these challenges, we of course need to be very careful not to assume that we have all the truth and that it's everyone else who is in the wrong! To be in a place of safety, when in seeking to be a witness to divine truth, will always require each of us to be humble, teachable, prayerful, fully surrendered to the Saviour and fully accountable to that part of the Body of Christ in which God has placed us.

As we choose to stand firm in this battle over the precedence of truth or lies, we cannot avoid the fact that the spiritual ruler of this world hates to see Kingdom teaching being steadfastly and graciously proclaimed, and experience has shown that his battle plan frequently centres on discouragement. Using those who have been somehow blinded to God's truth, Satan seeks to undermine the confidence and determination of followers of Jesus, deceiving them into believing that they are in a losing battle against the unstoppable trends of today's world. "Surely", he whispers, "It would be sensible to just give up!"

But God's word to us, right in the midst of the most discouraging moments, is to stand firm, alongside one another, because He will be with us through and to the very end of this tough assignment of being a disciple of Jesus. Furthermore, when we stay within the boundaries of His delegated authority, He will provide all the personal ability that we require, both natural and supernatural, to fulfil the destiny of our lives. He is the source of all truth, righteousness, peace and faith.

Therefore, take up the full armour or God, so that you will be able to resist in the evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm. ■

NEWS

FROM PAPUA NEW GUINEA

The work of Ellel Ministries in PNG started in 2011 with annual conferences followed by one day events; however the ministry was officially registered on September 21, 2015 at Papua New Guinea's Investment Promotion Authority (IPA PNG), PNG's Government organisation that is responsible for all business registration in PNG. The ministry is headed by Julian Robert Kivori who is currently the associate pastor of Boroko Baptist Church.

The major events conducted in a year are the annual July Conferences and the One Day Understanding Day. The July Conferences run for four consecutive days consisting of series of Ellel foundational teachings and daily prayer sessions. These events have been successfully attended by different Church denominations and para-church organisations. The One Day Understanding Day events focus on different subjects such as Relationships; Generational Iniquity; How to handle anger; Fear; Godly Sex and Sexuality; and Blessings & Curses.

We are so glad to be part of this end-time ministry ushering the purposes of God for God's glory in this part of God's world.

In the course of conducting these one day events, the topics of godly sex & sexuality and relationship are the most popular subjects with many participants. Due to the high interest from young people regarding the subjects mentioned, Ellel PNG had several invitations to speak to grades 10, 11, and 12 high school children. Almost all our prayers from the front begin with a salvation prayer and we have witnessed many young people coming to make a commitment to follow Jesus as their personal Saviour and Lord. What a joy to witness these occasions. Glory to God.

Church Visits is another program we conduct from time to time. 2016 has been mostly focused on interdenominational youth groups. These Christian youth groups are language-based and the teachings have been effective too. At the end of a series of teaching Julian conducted, a parent of a youth testified saying; "When I was a teenager, I had very limited knowledge about relationships and issues relating to it. Today as I look back in the light of these teachings, I see myself as if trailing through the jungle without much help. Today these young people need to be thankful for the teaching they are receiving now that will help them in their decision making."

In the midst of these activities the core team of Ellel PNG which consist of four individuals continue to conduct Personal Appointment (PA) prayer sessions. Salvation prayers continue to resound in almost every PA. We thank God for individuals flocking into the Kingdom of God through the Ellel Ministries.

We are so glad to be part of this end-time ministry ushering the purposes of God for God's glory in this part of God's world. Jesus said, "And this gospel of the kingdom will be proclaimed throughout the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come" (Matt.24:14).

INTERNATIONAL LEADERS CONFERENCE at Ellel Grange

At the end of September we held our biennial international leaders conference at Ellel Grange. Over 90 Ellel leaders from all over the world came together for a week of sharing, encouragement, re-envisioning, worship and fellowship. The conference coincided with the 30th anniversary of the ministry and so the leaders were able to celebrate together all that the God has done around the world through this work of His. Peter and Fiona Horrobin planted a special tree (named 'Grace') and there was even a cake to enjoy! The conference ended with a great sense of togetherness and an expectation of what God will do in the coming years.

Ellel Grange, UK

Dear Friends,

In the craziness of daily life, it can be hard to find those moments to focus fully on the Lord and to receive from Him. In many ways, that is what God has provided through the Ellel centres - a safe place to discover more of His amazing love and to receive His help for the issues in our lives.

Ellel Grange is a beautiful building with gorgeous countryside surrounding it, but the real beauty is in the sense of God's presence that fills the property. As a team we pray that all our guests would meet with Him in a special and powerful way during their time with us - that they would know true rest and peace as they draw close to Him.

Please do take the time to read through our exciting calendar of events for 2017 and if you feel led to attend any of the courses here we'll be delighted to welcome you to Ellel Grange.

Ellel Ministries

Pierrepont, UK

Dear Friends,

Ellel Ministries' largest centre, Pierrepont, has been running the Luke Nine Eleven Training School (NETS) since 1997. This life changing training programme was established in line with the vision for Ellel Ministries to establish near London a "teaching hospital" where Christians from all over the world are able to spend up to a year being equipped and trained as disciples of Jesus Christ in order to be able to minister God's healing love to others. Here is a testimony from Bruce, a recent graduate from NETS:

"Completing the NETS programme through to stage 4 has been extremely helpful in bringing to light my true identity in Christ. Knowing the love of the Father has been a continuing theme that God has kept hammering home to me. Learning to trust Him is an ongoing journey but one that I can honestly say has progressed further in the last eight months than the past twenty years".

As well as the NETS programme Pierrepont also runs other equipping and healing courses over one, two or three days. A new weekend course we are running in February is called The Ups and Downs of Pride and Humility. This is a very important subject for the body of Christ, and we look forward to presenting it.

Our 35-acre property is set in the beautiful and restful Surrey countryside and provides facilities such as swimming pool, gym, library and bookshop, tennis court, as well as stunning river walks. It provides a tranquil environment for prayer, reflection and space for God's presence to be felt and received.

Ellel Ministries

Scotland

Dear Friends,

We are very excited and feel greatly privileged to serve the Lord by putting on events which fulfil the vision God has given to Ellel Ministries Scotland. We will be doing ministry and running retreats in the same way the whole world-wide Ellel family does. But in the particular role God has given us we will also be hosting Pastors & Leaders from around the world. It is especially during these times that we sense we are fulfilling a God-inspired purpose for this place. We also know that Blairmore House is set aside for deep healing. Safely hidden away in Scotland we have witnessed so many people who have been stuck for so long really break through into the abundant life Jesus promises. Thank you, Lord!

Whether you have been before or if this would your first time up to Blairmore, we'd love to welcome you here, get to know you a bit better and discover together what the Lord has in store for you.

Ellel Ministries

Ireland

Dear Friends,

In Ellel Ireland we are delighted to welcome you to a selection of courses. Which are designed both to minister the heart of God to our guests, and also to equip them to minister to the needs of others. Our courses include the Modular training school. Also Healing Retreat weekends, which are run both in our center at Lisburn and in Little Darlings crèche in Waterford Rep of Ireland which are a big part of our ministry. Reaching out also with one day events in other church venues, who have invited Ellel Ministries to come along side and share the teaching and ministry.

We believe Ellel Ministries have been called to Ireland to help restore to the very needy body of Christ the healing ministry of Jesus to heal the broken hearted and set the captives free.

Looking forward to meeting you in 2017 at one of our events.

Yours in the love of Christ

GLYNDLEY MANOR COTTAGES

THE VISION!

Ellel Glyndley Manor has 34 holiday cottages on the grounds - and it is by no mistake that they are there, serving a purpose for what we believe is God's work at this centre! Currently we own 10 of these holiday cottages, which are let out for holidays and for people to come, stay and attend courses at the Manor house.

We believe using these holiday cottages is an important part of fulfilling what God wants to do here! Even before Ellel Ministries bought Glyndley Manor in 1991, these cottages had a place in God's heart for His purpose of restoration in people's lives. We can see this through the vision He gave a local Christian in 1976, as detailed below, (at the time of this vision, it's important to note that the holiday cottages weren't even built!)

"In 1976 around 2.30am, bathed in a bright light a vision was given to me, it was an aerial view of a large house, set in the country with beautiful gardens. There was a tennis court and a swimming pool. People were coming out of the small houses into a big house and others were coming in from outside. Something happened in the big house, it was to do with bringing the Kingdom of God to people in a relevant way and also to do with worship and training. All the people went out tremendously blessed by God."

The "big house" is Glyndley Manor and the "small houses" ... well, they're the cottages! Another, more recent vision adds to the first one, included here:

"People were coming in numbers, some to the Manor house and others, (mainly families) to the cottages."

Part of this vision was about giving families a place to come for rest, but also to give them the opportunity to receive the teaching and healing from Ellel Ministries.

It seems that the ability we have to house families and church groups in this special way also facilitates something of God's rest, peace and healing...and especially if they can also come up to the "big house" so they can leave tremendously blessed by God!

As we are still waiting for the complete fulfilment of owning all these cottages, we pray that God would continue to bring those who would be blessed in this exciting way.

We would love to see all of the 34 cottages fulfilling the vision that was set out from the beginning, to see them all being used for His plans and purposes. So that we can do as Jesus did and welcome them and teach them about the Kingdom of God, and heal those who were sick (Luke 9.11)

If you would like to know more about how you can help or financially contribute, please contact Glyndley Manor for more information.
